

'Bilal oniñye gelecekler qol şansı'

OMÜ Rektörü Prof. Dr. Yavuz Onal, "Bu yılki gelecek öğrenciler çok şanslı mezuniyetlerini gerçek yeterlilik olacak" dedi.

Worried about the future? You're not alone. Millions of Americans are worried about what the future holds. In fact, according to a recent study by the Pew Research Center, 70 percent of Americans say they are worried about their financial future. And that's just one concern among many others. Americans are also worried about their health, their families, and their communities. They are concerned about the economy and the political system. They are worried about the environment and climate change. They are worried about the future of their country and the world. These concerns are valid and important, but it's important to remember that we can't control everything in our lives. We can, however, take steps to prepare for the future and to make the most of the opportunities that come our way. This article will provide some tips and advice for navigating the challenges ahead.
